nent, bona fide daily circulation more than double that of any other daily paper published in Washington, and equal to that of all the other daily papers here added togetner.

Subscriptions will be received and duly ac counted to the New York Herald Irish Famine Fund at the office of THE STAR. A list, with name of contributor, former residence in Ireland, present residence, and amount of subscription, is now open.

The Eight Page Star

On Saturday will be an interesting number. Advertisers and news dealers will please send in their orders as usual, at the earliest practicable ment. The orders of news dealers alone on Saturday last exceeded the daily circulation of any other Washington paper, and to this may be added the increased circulation of THE STAR by carriers throughout the District. The advertisements for February-the dullest month of the year-reach 586 for the ten publication days, being more for that time than all the other papers in the city added together print in a Evidences that the "code duello" is growing unpopular in the south are quite frequently seen these days. Only a few days ago C. W Button, editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, was challenged by editor Elam, of the Richmond Whig, because of something the former published which reflected upon the latter. Mr. Button replied, in writing, that he was a "Christian man" and abhorred the code, but that while he would neither retract the offensive language nor fight a duel, he could be found at proper hours in his office, where he was ready to attend to business. He also notified Elam that if attacked he could defend himself. Mr. Elam and his "friend" took the next train for Richmond, and so far the southern journals have commended Mr. Button for his course. A few years ago he would have been condemned by the general voice of that section. The recent "duel" between New Orleans editors, in which two shots were fired but nobody was hurt, has done a great deal towards bringing the code into ridicule and disrepute.

of the bridges crossing the river Limmat, which flows through the city of Zurich, illustrating the sagacity of the gulls or terns frequenting some of the Swiss lakes. A gentleman who for amusement was in the habit of feeding these birds with refuse of meat (which they are very fond of) had his hat knocked off into the rapid current below, by one of the more eager gulls hovering around. The lookers-on laughed at the mishap, and a boat was about to put out into the stream to secure the trophy, when, to the surprise of every one, a gull was noticed to dart down upon the floating hat, and after several ineffectual attempts, succeeded at last in the bridge, to the great astonishment of every one, when over its center dropped the wellsoaked hat, where the bystanders at once secured it for the owner. Those who believe that animals have the reasoning faculty will doubtless add this to their list of proofs. The bill, reported yesterday from the Senate judiciary committe, for the suppression of polygamy in the United States, will, it is believed, be taken up at an early day. This will bring the whole question before the present session of Congress and it will, very probably, be debated at some length in both houses. The bill reported yesterday imposes penalties for the future practice of polygamy, or bigamy, as it is defined in the statutes, and disqualifies any man believing in the practice from jury service. The children born of polygamous marriages prior to November 1st, 1879, are legitimate, but subsequent births of that kind will not be recognized by the law. Power to grant pardons for offenses of this character is conferred upon the President. While the practice of polygamy is gener ally condemned by the sentiment of the American people there is a manifest desire that our law makers and law officers shall temper justice with mercy, discretion and consideration in dealing with the people of Utah.

The action of the Chicago hotel keepers in combining to raise the prices of accommodation during the session of the republican national convention is receiving universal condemnation. The plan devised by the hotel proprietors is to estimate the number of cots that a room will contain, and charge the price of five dollars for each cot. Any person can procure an entire room by paying for its area at the rate of five dollars per cot. For instance, if the room would hold five cots, the price per day would be $25. The delegation who urged the selection of Chicago promised, it is said, that the hotels should charge only their usual rates to delegates and visitors to the convention. If it were practicable, it would be a good plan for the national committee to reassemble, revoke its action se-lecting Chicago, and choose some other place for the convention. The democratic committee, at its meeting on the 23d, can avoid all trouble of this nature by naming Washington as the place for holding the national convention of that party. No doubt the hotel keepers of this city would file with the committee written obligations to maintain their usual rates of charge during the sitting of the convention.

The Senate in executive session yesterday began the work of rejecting unacceptable nominations for census supervisors. The entire list of Ohio nominations was rejected by a majority of 15 or 16, several republicans voting with the democrats against confirmation. It was alleged, but not in the session of the Senate, of course, that the Ohio list had been selected in the interest of Secretary Sherman's candidacy for the presidential nomination, and that, if they were confirmed, they would devote much of their time and all their influence to furthering that candidate. The democratic Senators objected to the list because it was composed entirely of republicans. There are other nominations for supervisors which are marked for rejection, and there is every prospect of an exciting contest before the entire list shall have been filled.

Washington Territory has elected Blaine delegates to the Chicago convention, but unfortunately for Mr. Blaine, territorial delegates cannot vote.—Exchange.

This is a mistake. Territorial delegates and delegates from the District of Columbia have votes in the republican national convention. hence the shurpness of the contest to secure the delegation for this District last week. In the democratic national convention territorial delegates and delegates from the District of Columbia have no votes, and occupy merely an honorary position.

It has been ascertained that more than $3,000,000 in gold coin was paid out during 1879 by the sub-treasury at Chicago, and the money went into circulation among the people. One railroad company disbursed between $300,000 and $400,000 of the amount to its employes, and It is the laboring classes, not the banks, who are hoarding the gold. If gold was circulated at other points in proportion to the amount distributed at Chicago, then it is estimated over $30,000,000 went among the people last year.

The members of the St. Louis Merchants' ex change have inaugurated a movement looking to the sending of a ship load of provisions direct to the starving districts of Ireland. A committee has been appointed to raise the money necessary, and it is believed the vessel will be sent within a short time.

The legal minds of the Senate are divided on the manner in which the remainder of the Geneva award should be distributed. Senator Edmunds is maintaining the equity of the war premium men and Senator Thurman the law of the insurance companies.

The bonanza miners of the Pacific slope have been heard from at last, or at least two of them. Flood sends $25,000, and his partner, Mackey, $10,000 to the Irish relief fund. Eugene Kelly, the New York banker, has contributed $1,000.

Old men, tottering round from Rheumatism, Kid-ney trouble or any weakness, will be made almost new by using Hop Bitters freely.
